October 5 | Games or Movie

6 PM - Potluck dinner, please bring a food contribution to feed 6-8 friends.

7-9 PM - Games, rummy cubes, easy scrabble, bridge or movie: Three men and a Baby: (1987) This movie is pure entertainment, the type of classic, one of the rare movies, capable of making you laugh out-loud. A movie that's good clean fun, cleverly written, and with actors who can play the roles as though they owned them. Selleck, Danson and Guttenberg are superb in portraying three very different bachelors whose lives are turned upside down by a tiny baby dropped, literally, on their doorstep. This movie is a very funny depiction of three suave ladies' men getting domesticated. Cast: Tom Selleck, Steve Guttenberg, Ted Danson, Nancy Travis, Margaret Colin, Alexandra Amini, Philip Bosco, Celeste Holm, Derek de Lint, Lisa Blair, Michelle Blair, Dave Foley, Paul Guilfoyle, Cynthia Harris, Earl Hindman, Colin Quinn. He appeals to his parishioners, which includes a new influx of Burmese refugees escaping a Civil War, to find a way to save the spiritual home. With courage, faith, hard work, and determination they accomplish something greater than they determined to do, a touching and poignant finale. CAST: John Corbett, Cara Buono, Barry Corbin.
