

Social Contract

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself" ~ Mark 12:31

Each individual entering the campus and facilities of the First United Methodist Church of San Diego and the Water's Edge Faith Community signifies understanding and agreement to abide by the following practices:

- Participants, regardless of the event, are asked to make an online reservation for the event at <https://www.fumcsd.org/> or by calling 619-297-4366. Preparations for event attendance will be made accordingly.
- Designated seating may be applicable.
- Appropriate distancing will be maintained.
- Early arrival is encouraged.

At the entrance to the event, Church representatives will:

- Verify registration and status of any COVID-19 symptoms (fever, cough, extreme fatigue, etc) of each person.
- Verify that each person enters with a face mask, fully covering nose and mouth.
- Verify each person's hands are cleaned with sanitizer immediately prior to entering the room or sanctuary.
- Guide each person to their seat by the designated one-way traffic flow.

Departing the event, Church representatives will:

- Direct exiting according to the designated one-way traffic flow.
- Verify proper distancing is maintained as the crowd exits.

On any occasion that someone demonstrates non-compliance, the following actions will be taken:

- An appointed Church representative will remind the person(s) of the agreement and request that the non-compliant behavior(s) be corrected.
- Failing compliance, the Church representative will show the person(s) a laminated copy of this Social Contract and the safety guidelines posted at check-in, pointing out how behaviors need to be changed.
- Failing compliance, the Church representative will explain to the person(s) that the event will need to be canceled immediately.
- Failing all prior steps, the Church representative will notify the Event Leader who will immediately announce that the event is now ended and people will be dismissed for safety reasons.
